CAR-T in Lymphoma: Lessons from Everyday Practice

1. Organiser and operator

- 1.1. The webinar series "CAR-T in Lymphoma: Lessons from Everyday Practice" (the "Series") is organised and funded by Bristol-Myers Squibb Services Sp. z o.o., Al. Armii Ludowej 26, 00-609 Warsaw, Poland, entered in the Register of Entrepreneurs of the National Court Register (KRS) maintained by the District Court for the Capital City of Warsaw, XII Commercial Division of the National Court Register, under KRS number 0000138701, NIP 5262667707, REGON 015276638 ("BMS" or the "Organiser").
- 1.2. The registration page, webinar platform and on-demand service are operated on behalf of BMS by Net4Doctor sp. z o.o., ul. Gdańska 126/128, 90-520 Łódź, Poland, NIP 7282740006, REGON 100820817, KRS 0000346120 (the "Operator").
- 1.3. These Terms govern registration for and participation in the Series, live and on demand.

2. Who may participate

- 2.1. The Series is intended exclusively for healthcare professionals ("HCPs") qualified to practise in a European country.
- 2.2. Participation is free of charge. BMS does not cover any travel or other costs of participants.
- 2.3. Access is personal and non-transferable. Each participant may hold one registration.

3. Registration and verification

- 3.1. Registration requires completing the online form, including a professional registration (licence) number, and accepting these Terms.
- 3.2. By registering, the participant declares that they are an HCP and that the data provided is true.
- 3.3. The Operator may verify the information provided [against publicly available professional registers] and may decline or cancel a registration if HCP status cannot be confirmed.
- 3.4. After registering, the participant receives a confirmation e-mail. Reminders and access details are sent to the registered e-mail address before each webinar.

4. Access and technical requirements

- 4.1. Participants access the webinars through a personal link or login sent by e-mail. Participants must not share their access details with others.
- 4.2. Participation requires a device with a current web browser (Google Chrome, Microsoft Edge, Safari or Firefox) and a stable internet connection. [Mobile app access – TBC.]
- 4.3. Technical support is available at [support e-mail] and during live webinars through [the platform help function].

5. Live webinars

- 5.1. Each webinar is broadcast live in English, on the date and time stated in the invitation and on the registration page.
- 5.2. Participants can submit written questions and answer polls through the platform. Questions are selected and answered by the speakers; not every question may be answered.
- 5.3. Participants must behave professionally and must not post content that is unlawful, offensive, promotional or that contains personal data of patients.
- 5.4. If a question or comment refers to an adverse event or a product quality complaint concerning a BMS medicinal product, it will be forwarded to BMS Pharmacovigilance, which may contact the participant for follow-up. [Wording and process to be provided by BMS.]
- 5.5. The Organiser may change the date, time, programme or speakers of a webinar, or cancel it. Registered participants will be informed by e-mail.

6. Recording and on-demand access

- 6.1. Each webinar is recorded. Participants are not filmed; questions may be read out during the webinar [without the participant's name].
- 6.2. Recordings are made available on demand to registered, authenticated HCPs for 12 months after each webinar.
- 6.3. All recordings are the property of BMS.

7. Intellectual property and use of content

- 7.1. The content of the webinars, including presentations and recordings, is protected by copyright and belongs to BMS or the speakers.
- 7.2. Participants may use the content only for their personal professional education. Recording, screen capture, copying, downloading or sharing the content with others is prohibited.

8. Educational nature of the content

- 8.1. The Series is educational. Speakers present their own views, which do not necessarily reflect those of BMS.
- 8.2. The content does not replace clinical judgement. For prescribing information, participants should refer to the Summary of Product Characteristics approved in their country.

9. Availability and liability

- 9.1. The Operator makes reasonable efforts to ensure uninterrupted access, but brief interruptions may occur due to technical reasons.
- 9.2. The Organiser and the Operator are not responsible for problems caused by the participant's device, software or internet connection. Liability is excluded only to the extent permitted by law.

10. Personal data

- 10.1. Personal data is processed as described in the [Privacy Notice].

11. Complaints and contact

- 11.1. Questions and complaints concerning the Series can be sent to [support e-mail]. Complaints are answered within 14 days.

12. Final provisions

- 12.1. BMS and the Operator may amend these Terms for important reasons, such as changes in law or in the organisation of the Series. Registered participants will be informed by e-mail before changes take effect.
- 12.2. These Terms are governed by [Polish law], without prejudice to mandatory consumer or professional regulations in the participant's country.
- 12.3. These Terms apply from [date].
